

The Blaine vote in Missouri shows a gain of 50,000 over the Garfield vote of 1880. Will Mr. Curtis please explain this?

It is a fact that candidates for postal appointments are springing up like mushrooms all over the country. But just wait till the rush begins.

The attempt is now being made by the democrats to put Blaine in his coffin. That will be one of the hardest tasks our democratic friends ever undertook.

Mr. Beecher still continues to lecture to beggarly small audiences in the east. The kind of advertising he courted during the campaign did not help him. It completely destroyed his popularity.

The late election gave many illustrations of the value of one vote. One of them was in the eighth congressional district of Indiana, where Johnson, the republican candidate, is elected by one majority.

A most encouraging indication of the resolute bearing of the republican party in the hour of defeat is the organization of new clubs of young men in various parts of the country. They propose to organize now and be the better prepared for the battle of 1884.

The prohibitionists made their brains derive the campaign that temperance was making greater headway in the south than in the north. Well, there isn't much comfort for them in the fact that St. John received only 134 votes in Georgia.

There is a determined effort on the part of our dear friend, Mr. Hendricks, to magnify himself into a considerably bigger man than Grover Cleveland, and he will fail. We hope Mr. Cleveland will show some backbone in his contest with his inflated vice president.

The republicans who bolted Blaine in Boston felt no concern about committing the national government to democratic care, but they are so unwilling to have their city controlled by the same party that they are working earnestly with the republicans to save it from such a fate.

Mrs. Dr. Kemper, whose husband was formerly superintendent of the Northern hospital for the insane, has brought suit for a divorce, in which she charges him with inhuman treatment, non-support and several other crimes against the marriage law. The doctor was compelled to give bonds not to leave the state until the suit was decided. Dr. Kemper tried to manage his wife very much in the same way he tried to manage the Northern hospital for the insane, and of course human nature couldn't endure it, and the revolt came.

In a certain village in Pennsylvania is a storekeeper who voted the democratic ticket for twenty-five years, while the only other groceryman in the place voted the republican ticket. The latter has been postmaster for many years, much to the discontent of the democrat, as it drew trade from his store. This year the democrat determined to make an effort for the office, and voted the republican ticket. He made violent speeches against his former party and lauded the republican candidate for president. His neighbors now say he swears at having made such a mistake, and they are laughing at this particular groceryman's expense.

There is much interest in what the Cincinnati Commercial says about the new and the old south and Mr. Blaine, when it said that it becomes anyone who has ever supported the party that has stood for the liberty and nationality of the American people, to speak, as we notice that some do, of "the rottenness" of Mr. Blaine's August speech to his neighbors. Mr. Blaine made all the friendly advances to "the south" that a republican could make. He understood the immense injustice done in that section and spoke hopefully of the new South. But it is the old south that is rampant now and as intolerant of opposition as ever.

A prominent man in Washington wrote the other day to the Indianapolis Journal in regard to Mr. Blaine's future in which he said that the Plumed Knight declared that he never expected to hold another political office, and complained of arid sarcasm when it was suggested that the wind might blow his way again about four years hence. Mr. Blaine added that he emerged from this fight a firmer republican than he was before he entered it—firmer, because he knew more about the party. He said that he would not be found sulking in the campaign four years ahead of this time, and that no republican should ever be defeated because of anything he had done or would refuse to do.

A report has been sent broadcast over the country that ex-Senator B. N. Bruce, of Mississippi, now register of the United States treasury, and the leader of the better class of the colored men, made the statement that he disapproved of Mr. Blaine's August speech. The democratic papers pointed with pride to this blow at Mr. Blaine by the "leading colored man of the south." When this story reached the ears of Mr. Bruce he gave the associated press a telegram in which he said the whole story was an unmitigated falsehood. Now the statement from him which they paraded and commented upon with the hope of injuring Mr. Blaine turns out to be like their campaign "charges" without foundation in fact, a pure fabrication. "The most distinguished colored republican of the south" has placed these organs of democracy in a most distressing position. There is nothing so intolerable to a democrat as apologizing to a colored man.

Wm. S. Fleming, M. D., Pleasant, Pa., a sufferer from rheumatism for seven years writes, "After using two bottles of All-Wholesome, I am entirely well and about my business."

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Rankin's Universal History—The Voyage of the "Vivian"—Good Stories—A Poetical Secret.

The Oldest Historical Group of Nations and the Oldest Historical Group of Nations and the Oldest Historical Group of Nations.

One of the latest and the best contributions to our historical literature is Rankin's Universal history, which has just been issued by the Harper's.

Mr. G. W. Prothero. * * * No better commendation of the book can be given than that by the London Review: "We are glad that the translation has been undertaken by so competent an historian as Mr. G. W. Prothero."

Mr. Beecher still continues to lecture to beggarly small audiences in the east. The kind of advertising he courted during the campaign did not help him. It completely destroyed his popularity.

The late election gave many illustrations of the value of one vote. One of them was in the eighth congressional district of Indiana, where Johnson, the republican candidate, is elected by one majority.

A most encouraging indication of the resolute bearing of the republican party in the hour of defeat is the organization of new clubs of young men in various parts of the country.

The prohibitionists made their brains derive the campaign that temperance was making greater headway in the south than in the north.

There is a determined effort on the part of our dear friend, Mr. Hendricks, to magnify himself into a considerably bigger man than Grover Cleveland.

In a certain village in Pennsylvania is a storekeeper who voted the democratic ticket for twenty-five years, while the only other groceryman in the place voted the republican ticket.

There is much interest in what the Cincinnati Commercial says about the new and the old south and Mr. Blaine, when it said that it becomes anyone who has ever supported the party that has stood for the liberty and nationality of the American people.

A prominent man in Washington wrote the other day to the Indianapolis Journal in regard to Mr. Blaine's future in which he said that the Plumed Knight declared that he never expected to hold another political office.

A report has been sent broadcast over the country that ex-Senator B. N. Bruce, of Mississippi, now register of the United States treasury, and the leader of the better class of the colored men, made the statement that he disapproved of Mr. Blaine's August speech.

The democratic papers pointed with pride to this blow at Mr. Blaine by the "leading colored man of the south." When this story reached the ears of Mr. Bruce he gave the associated press a telegram in which he said the whole story was an unmitigated falsehood.

Now the statement from him which they paraded and commented upon with the hope of injuring Mr. Blaine turns out to be like their campaign "charges" without foundation in fact, a pure fabrication.

"The most distinguished colored republican of the south" has placed these organs of democracy in a most distressing position. There is nothing so intolerable to a democrat as apologizing to a colored man.

Wm. S. Fleming, M. D., Pleasant, Pa., a sufferer from rheumatism for seven years writes, "After using two bottles of All-Wholesome, I am entirely well and about my business."

The Oldest Historical Group of Nations and the Oldest Historical Group of Nations and the Oldest Historical Group of Nations.

One of the latest and the best contributions to our historical literature is Rankin's Universal history, which has just been issued by the Harper's.

Mr. G. W. Prothero. * * * No better commendation of the book can be given than that by the London Review: "We are glad that the translation has been undertaken by so competent an historian as Mr. G. W. Prothero."

Mr. Beecher still continues to lecture to beggarly small audiences in the east. The kind of advertising he courted during the campaign did not help him. It completely destroyed his popularity.

The late election gave many illustrations of the value of one vote. One of them was in the eighth congressional district of Indiana, where Johnson, the republican candidate, is elected by one majority.

A most encouraging indication of the resolute bearing of the republican party in the hour of defeat is the organization of new clubs of young men in various parts of the country.

The prohibitionists made their brains derive the campaign that temperance was making greater headway in the south than in the north.

There is a determined effort on the part of our dear friend, Mr. Hendricks, to magnify himself into a considerably bigger man than Grover Cleveland.

In a certain village in Pennsylvania is a storekeeper who voted the democratic ticket for twenty-five years, while the only other groceryman in the place voted the republican ticket.

There is much interest in what the Cincinnati Commercial says about the new and the old south and Mr. Blaine, when it said that it becomes anyone who has ever supported the party that has stood for the liberty and nationality of the American people.

A prominent man in Washington wrote the other day to the Indianapolis Journal in regard to Mr. Blaine's future in which he said that the Plumed Knight declared that he never expected to hold another political office.

A report has been sent broadcast over the country that ex-Senator B. N. Bruce, of Mississippi, now register of the United States treasury, and the leader of the better class of the colored men, made the statement that he disapproved of Mr. Blaine's August speech.

THANKSGIVING ECHOES.

NOTABLE INCIDENTS OF THE DAY'S CELEBRATION.

The Roman Catholic Plenary Council—Chicago Socialists—A Gratitude of a Political Character—The Hungry Not Forgotten.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—The Socialists of this city, to the number of about 4,000, with music, paraded the streets of the business portion Thanksgiving day, carrying black and red flags.

A meeting was held on Market street, which was addressed by several leaders. Samuel Field, the editor of the Chicago Socialist, was the chief speaker.

One of the latest and the best contributions to our historical literature is Rankin's Universal history, which has just been issued by the Harper's.

Mr. G. W. Prothero. * * * No better commendation of the book can be given than that by the London Review: "We are glad that the translation has been undertaken by so competent an historian as Mr. G. W. Prothero."

Mr. Beecher still continues to lecture to beggarly small audiences in the east. The kind of advertising he courted during the campaign did not help him. It completely destroyed his popularity.

The late election gave many illustrations of the value of one vote. One of them was in the eighth congressional district of Indiana, where Johnson, the republican candidate, is elected by one majority.

A most encouraging indication of the resolute bearing of the republican party in the hour of defeat is the organization of new clubs of young men in various parts of the country.

The prohibitionists made their brains derive the campaign that temperance was making greater headway in the south than in the north.

There is a determined effort on the part of our dear friend, Mr. Hendricks, to magnify himself into a considerably bigger man than Grover Cleveland.

In a certain village in Pennsylvania is a storekeeper who voted the democratic ticket for twenty-five years, while the only other groceryman in the place voted the republican ticket.

There is much interest in what the Cincinnati Commercial says about the new and the old south and Mr. Blaine, when it said that it becomes anyone who has ever supported the party that has stood for the liberty and nationality of the American people.

A prominent man in Washington wrote the other day to the Indianapolis Journal in regard to Mr. Blaine's future in which he said that the Plumed Knight declared that he never expected to hold another political office.

A report has been sent broadcast over the country that ex-Senator B. N. Bruce, of Mississippi, now register of the United States treasury, and the leader of the better class of the colored men, made the statement that he disapproved of Mr. Blaine's August speech.

The democratic papers pointed with pride to this blow at Mr. Blaine by the "leading colored man of the south." When this story reached the ears of Mr. Bruce he gave the associated press a telegram in which he said the whole story was an unmitigated falsehood.

Now the statement from him which they paraded and commented upon with the hope of injuring Mr. Blaine turns out to be like their campaign "charges" without foundation in fact, a pure fabrication.

"The most distinguished colored republican of the south" has placed these organs of democracy in a most distressing position. There is nothing so intolerable to a democrat as apologizing to a colored man.

Wm. S. Fleming, M. D., Pleasant, Pa., a sufferer from rheumatism for seven years writes, "After using two bottles of All-Wholesome, I am entirely well and about my business."

The Oldest Historical Group of Nations and the Oldest Historical Group of Nations and the Oldest Historical Group of Nations.

One of the latest and the best contributions to our historical literature is Rankin's Universal history, which has just been issued by the Harper's.

Mr. G. W. Prothero. * * * No better commendation of the book can be given than that by the London Review: "We are glad that the translation has been undertaken by so competent an historian as Mr. G. W. Prothero."

Mr. Beecher still continues to lecture to beggarly small audiences in the east. The kind of advertising he courted during the campaign did not help him. It completely destroyed his popularity.

The late election gave many illustrations of the value of one vote. One of them was in the eighth congressional district of Indiana, where Johnson, the republican candidate, is elected by one majority.

A most encouraging indication of the resolute bearing of the republican party in the hour of defeat is the organization of new clubs of young men in various parts of the country.

The prohibitionists made their brains derive the campaign that temperance was making greater headway in the south than in the north.

There is a determined effort on the part of our dear friend, Mr. Hendricks, to magnify himself into a considerably bigger man than Grover Cleveland.

In a certain village in Pennsylvania is a storekeeper who voted the democratic ticket for twenty-five years, while the only other groceryman in the place voted the republican ticket.

There is much interest in what the Cincinnati Commercial says about the new and the old south and Mr. Blaine, when it said that it becomes anyone who has ever supported the party that has stood for the liberty and nationality of the American people.

THE BENEFIT CONCERT.

A Splendid Program, a Good Concert and a Fine Audience.

There was a magnificent audience at the Congregational church last evening, to hear the concert given for the benefit of Miss Orris. Fully one thousand people were present, the church being filled in all its parts.

After an overture by the orchestra from the Institute for the blind, a double male quartet sang the famous Becker March, Miss Dolly Best recited "The Minuet," and did it splendidly.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell, of Emerald Grove, gave one of their characteristic duets, which was loudly encored. Miss Christine Peterson, who had the 5th number, never sang better in her life than she did last night.

Her voice was clear and under control, her expression excellent and being perfectly at ease with herself, did some splendid work and was honored with a recall. Miss L. Manning recited "The Last Hymn," and her number elicited the loudest applause.

She displayed much skill in expression and in voice culture, and won hosts of friends. "The Palmers," a bass solo, was given by Mr. George Brooks, of the Institute for the blind, in a very excellent manner and was deservedly encored.

One of the best numbers of the evening was "Ave Maria" sung as a double trio, by Mrs. J. W. St. John, Mrs. C. E. Mosley, Mrs. A. O. Wilson, Miss Christine Peterson, Miss Frances Edwards, and Miss Kittie Earnworth. It was finely given and loudly applauded.

Mrs. St. John never appeared to a better advantage than she did last night. She was in fine voice, and in giving that beautiful solo, "The but a little faded flower," she admirably sustained her reputation.

Of course she won an enthusiastic recall, and responded with "Come, come, the eye," and it may be said without any flattery whatever, that she never sang that popular song with more expression and grace than she did last evening.

Mrs. J. B. Day, whom the people of Janesville never tire hearing, read a selection from Mark Twain. She couldn't read otherwise than first rate, and she didn't. The audience became wonderfully enthusiastic, and Mrs. Day was forced to respond to a double recall.

The first time giving a woman's speech on "Woman's rights," it was a magnificent piece of reading, and to be sure, carried the audience "by storm." Mrs. George Woodruff gave a piano solo on which she was loudly recalled, but responded simply with a bow. She is an excellent pianist and did herself credit last night.

Major Rockwood gave a recitation in the German dialect, which proved so popular that he was compelled to respond to an encore which he did in a very able manner. The orchestra closed the entertainment, and it is but single justice to say that the orchestra from the Institute never was better than it now is.

The net proceeds of the entertainment will be $200 or upwards.

The most reliable article in use for restoring gray hair to its original color and promoting its growth, is Hall's Vegetable Sillian Hair Renewer.

A live clothing store, corner Main and Milwaukee street.

PROFESSOR ZIEGLER.

READ ESTATE.—All persons wishing to buy, sell, rent or exchange real estate of any kind, or obtain a loan on real estate security can serve his or her interest best by patronizing Blanchard & Hall.

The finest line of neck wear and overcoat scarves in the city at

FOOTE & WILCOX.

A large brass key has been left at this office for an owner.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—2:30 P. M.

AS REPORTED FOR THE GAZETTE BY J. W. MANNING

REPRESENTING D. O. FISHER & CO., COMMISSION, GRAIN AND PROVISION MERCHANTS, 135 WASHINGTON ST., CHICAGO.

Wheat.—

Dec. 74 1/2

Jan. 74 1/2

Feb. 74 1/2

May 74 1/2

Nov. 74 1/2

LOCAL MATTERS.

Strict orders by the companies concerned, that not one article shall be left unsold in the New York Fire Sale, South Main street, opposite the C. B. Conrad grocery store.

Go to the Empire drug store for brushes and combs.

The Great New York fire store opens its doors this week with a wholesale stock of clothing saved from a fire. It will be sold at most any price. South Main opposite O. B. Conrad's grocery.

Ladies' scarves underwear, heavy, all wool, $1.75 per suit, at New York evening store.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

A fine line of childrens short pants and childrens overcoats at Pitner & Ziegler's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

A fine line of childrens short pants and childrens overcoats at Pitner & Ziegler's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

A fine line of childrens short pants and childrens overcoats at Pitner & Ziegler's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

A fine line of childrens short pants and childrens overcoats at Pitner & Ziegler's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

A fine line of childrens short pants and childrens overcoats at Pitner & Ziegler's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

A fine line of childrens short pants and childrens overcoats at Pitner & Ziegler's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

A fine line of childrens short pants and childrens overcoats at Pitner & Ziegler's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

A fine line of childrens short pants and childrens overcoats at Pitner & Ziegler's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

A fine line of childrens short pants and childrens overcoats at Pitner & Ziegler's.

WORTH OF

Fire and Bankrupt

Stock

CLOTHING!

HATS

AND

GENTS'

Furnishing

:--Goods,

Will be placed on sale

this week in our store

on South Main Street,

opposite C. B. Conrad's grocery store, near the park.

Will be open this week,

New York Fire Store.

South Main Street,

Opposite C. B. Conrad's

grocery store, near the

park.

Will be open this week,

New York Fire Store.

South Main Street,

Opposite C. B. Conrad's

grocery store, near the

park.

Will be open this week,

New York Fire Store.

South Main Street,

Opposite C. B. Conrad's

grocery store, near the

WHEELER & STEVENS

This is the best Real Estate firm ever organized in Rock County.

They have more Farm Property

More Houses and Lots, and more unimproved lands for sale on reasonable terms, than any other firm in Southern Wisconsin.

They show buyers the property, prove titles, and take special pains to suit purchasers and make all things satisfactory. Persons wanting to buy or sell property should apply to

WHEELER & STEVENS,

Office, Phelps Block Janesville, Wis.

adviser

WHEELER & STEVENS

adviser

WHEELER & STEVENS

adviser

WHEELER & STEVENS

adviser

WHEELER & STEVENS

adviser

WHEELER & STEVENS

Subscribers to the DAILY GAZETTE who do not receive their paper regularly, will confer a favor by reporting omissions promptly at the GAZETTE PRINTING ROOM.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The auction sale at the Elephant is not bogus, the goods will and must be sold.

J. K. McCONNELL, Auctioneer.

An Appeal to Caesar, by Judge Alvino W. Tompkins, the author of Pools Errand, for sale at Sutherland's.

All goods in the Elephant stock will be sold without reserve.

SPECIAL NOTICE—I have received this day twenty pieces of all-wool plain and Ottoman ladies cloths, in all the colors and shades made, full 1 1/2 yards wide, which I shall sell at $1.00 per yard. No such goods can be found at any other house in the city at the price.

M. C. SMITH.

Great auction sale of clothing now going on at the Elephant.

FOR SALE—8 and seven-tenths acres of land located on Milton avenue. The improvements consist of a good frame house, barn and out-buildings. Enquire of Wm. Palmerton, the carpenter.

The Raymond mill and water-power lot, with 550 inches of water, will be sold regardless of cost, by C. E. Bowles.

The place to buy your underclothing and gloves and mittens at Fitcher & Ziegler's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's. Roller skate etchings on the 25c counter at Wheelock's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's. Fall and winter hats and caps in great variety at J. L. Fords, West Milwaukee street.

$1,000 to loan by C. E. Bowles.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's. To REMY—An eight room house located at the corner of Mineral Point Avenue and Pearl streets, first ward.

C. E. Bowles has cheap homes for sale. $1100 will buy a choice home on South Main street. Apply to C. E. Bowles.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

New assortment of combs, tooth brushes, toilet soaps and face powders, at Palmer & Stevens' drugstore.

Clothing, hats, caps and furnishing goods are sold in accordance with the price of wheat and corn, at the New York Fire Sale, South Main street, opposite C. L. Courtes's.

Call at the Empire drug store for toilet goods.

Men's full suits, boys' and children's suits, stylish, well-made and fine trimmed, at the price of old goods, sold at the New York Fire Sale, South Main street next to temperance saloon.

A full stock of new goods at Eldredge's.

Clothing for winter, for men and boys can be bought for very little money at the New York Fire Sale, South Main street, opposite Methodist church.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

$2,000 to loan by C. E. Bowles.

Overcoats for men and boys at the New York Fire Sale, South Main street near the City scales.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

The clothing and furnishing goods are sold at the great Fire Sale for less than half their value by the companies concerned at New York Fire Sale, South Main street, near the park.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

Our stock of worsted hoods for ladies and children is unequalled in variety or prices. We are making them a leading specialty and can guarantee the best values obtainable. New York Saving store.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

If you have your boots and shoes and rubber goods repaired, if it is done as it should be, the nearest work of that kind in town is done by Wm. F. Beckert, in the corn exchange block, opposite the hay scales. Give him a call and be convinced.

95 cents buys a pair of fine silk mittens at the New York Saving store.

French China platters large enough to hold a 15 pound turkey, for half price. Wheelock's. New rose lamp shades and other novelties.

Work, hairpin, infants', cap, lunch, shopping and fancy baskets, at Wheelock's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

FOR SALE—Fourteen acres of choice oblong land in 3d ward if applied for at once. For information address W. L. Jennings & Co.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

Just received at the New York Saving store—one case felt hats, latest shapes and colors, bound edges, extra fine quality, to be sold at $1.00, actual price being $1.50 to $1.75.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

Custom work done on short notice at Fitcher & Ziegler. Men tailors, make first class work; our shop is full of them, and they are all at it. Come and see us.

FOR SALE—A new house and one and one-half acres of land, located on Ruger ave., third ward, convenient for small family. Apply at Gazette office.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

The Turtle driving outfit for ladies and gentlemen, are just the thing for driving in cold weather, can be worn with any glove or mitten, sold at Fitcher & Ziegler.

"Bozents" at Prentice & Evenson's.

Come early and avoid the rush, and get your bargains from a full stock, at the New York Fire Sale, South Main street near the City scales.

Two first-class homes in the suburbs each having ten acres of choice land, for sale at a bargain by C. E. Bowles.

Elegant holiday goods at Eldredge's.

CRIMINALS.

Henry Doty, the mason, broke his arm last evening, by a fall.

The law firm of Street & Lane has been dissolved—Mr. Street retains the old office in the Phoebe block.

The Janesville anti-horse theft association will hold a regular meeting on Tuesday evening of next week.

Rooney & Charlton are retarding choice venison steaks at their meat market on Milwaukee street bridge.

The Odd Fellows and their families will enjoy another pleasant social in Odd Fellows hall on Saturday evening.

The fire department failed to turn out yesterday, to fill the Central school fire cistern. They will be out this evening for that purpose.

Marshall Hogan, last evening arrested Richard Barry, on charge of stealing $40 from Thomas Welsh, at his saloon on West Milwaukee street.

J. J. Boyd, proprietor of the Elephant clothing house, South Main street intends closing out a large line of ready-made clothing, at auction, the sale commencing on to-morrow. Mr. J. K. Mc Connell will be the auctioneer.

Mr. H. P. Bell, the popular auctioneer, who is now closing out the Souther stock of clothing, etc., was in Janesville several years ago, and auctioned off the stock of dry goods for McKee & Bros., at their east side store.

J. K. McConnell, one of the ablest salesmen in the clothing line, and who was with McKee & Bros. for fourteen years, will close out at auction the stock of goods at the Elephant store, commencing Saturday, November 29.

The members of Water Witch Engine company No. 2 will give their 51st annual party at Apollo hall, on Thursday evening, Dec. 11th. Smith & Corlies orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets one dollar. A good time in store for all who attend.

The twelfth annual festival of Rescue Hook and Ladder company took place at the Rifles armory on Wednesday evening, and was a most magnificent success in every particular.

The floor of the large armory was crowded with young people, and a more joyous, or larger gathering is seldom seen in this city. The Hook and Ladder boys are entitled to much credit for arranging so pleasant a dance on the eve of Thanksgiving.

"Disturbance," at the opera house on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, as presented by the Burton Comedy Company, did not draw very good houses.

In fact, very few people ventured out to witness the play, and greet their old time friend, Mr. J. W. Burton. The play is not one calculated to create excitement in amusement circles—especially in Janesville, where it takes "burnt cork" artists to create anything like enthusiasm among those who frequent the opera house.

No company could play and do themselves credit before such a small audience as greeted the Burton Company, and we therefore have no criticism on the performance.

The grand masquerade carnival at the roller skating rink on Wednesday night was attended by a very large crowd of skaters and spectators.

Many of the costumes were very neat, and attracted much attention. The Bower City band added much to the pleasant success of the carnival by rendering some excellent music.

Miss Araby Sutherland was awarded the prize as wearing the handsomest costume, and Mr. Henry Fritz the prize for the best comic. The managers are to be congratulated at the merited success of their endeavors to please the public.

Thursday afternoon the rink was again crowded with pleasure seekers, notwithstanding the excellent skating on the ice above the dam.

Mr. H. P. Bell, the Chicago auctioneer, is making things lively at the Star. Clothing house of Fred Sonneborn, every afternoon and evening.

Everything is being sold at the drop of the hammer regardless of value. Mr. Sonneborn being determined to close out the entire stock by the first of January.

There are many rare bargains at this sale, and the people who fail to attend and avail themselves of this opportunity to secure goods at their own prices will only have them themselves to blame.

On Tuesday afternoon the sales at auction amounted to over $900, one man making purchases to the amount of $285.

On Wednesday afternoon of next week will be ladies day, at which children's fine clothing will be offered, silk handkerchiefs, and neck-wear, jewelry, ladies' satchels etc. This sale will commence at one o'clock and every lady in the city is invited to call, whether they desire to purchase or not. There are many rich bargains in the stock, awaiting some one bid.

Municipal Court.

Four tramps appeared before the municipal court and were each sentenced to confinement in the county jail on a bread and water diet, on terms varying from four to seven days.

Charles Stone and Harry Lane were complained against for drunkenness, and were committed seven and three days respectively, in default of payment of fines and costs.

Richard Barry was before the court this afternoon and pleaded not guilty to the charge of the larceny of $40 from Thomas Welsh. The case was set for trial on Monday, bail being fixed at $300 on each count.

The case of Hugh McGavock vs. J. B. Doe, administrator of the estate of Thomas Buckley, deceased, and others, has been on trial all this week in the circuit court, and the plaintiff's testimony was closed this morning. The trial is suspended for the present.

Tomorrow morning Judge Bennett will hear experts matters. Monday he goes to Racine to exchange with Judge Winslow, who will be here next week to try the case of Barriage vs. Kent, in which Judge Bennett was counsel. That will probably be the only jury case to be tried.

Call and Settle.

All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to me are requested to call at once and make settlement, as I must conclude my business in this city by the first of January.

PRUD SONENBERG, Star Clothing.

Edwards' Balm, et Life is sold by Palmer & Stevens. Trial bottle free.

CUPID'S HARVEST.

Wedding bells on Thanksgiving Day. Numerous ones giving thanks in marriage.

"Paradise, unending treasure, Constant faith, fair hope, long leisure. Sacred hymns these are thine."

YANKIN-BELDEN.

Thanksgiving Day was very happily and appropriately celebrated at the home of Mrs. J. J. Yankin, of the Fourth ward, by the marriage of her son, Mr. O. N. Yankin to Miss Ellen A. Belden, who for many years was connected with the Gazette office, and for some months past was with the Prairie Farmer office of Chicago.

The ceremony took place at half past three o'clock in the afternoon, the Rev. M. G. Hodge, D. D., pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. The wedding was a private one, none but the relatives of the contracting parties being present.

After the ceremony, the family sat down to a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner which was made doubly enjoyable by the sympathy which immediately preceded. Thus bound by Cupid's ties, while life shall last, the many friends of the happy couple wish them long years of health and happiness—the purest blessings that can fall to the lot of mortals.

Mr. and Mrs. Yankin have wisely decided to start out bravely in matrimonial life, by adopting the common sense and the good old fashioned way of keeping house, and thus have the little kingdom of home unto themselves. Their residence will be at the Powers place, on Locust street, Fourth ward.

PARTY-BENEFITS.

On Thanksgiving, for the first time since the centennial year, every member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Jervia Bemis, consisting of five sons and two daughters, except one son, Daniel Bemis, who resides at Prairie City, Kansas, as well as many neighbors and friends, were assembled at their residence near Footville, to witness the most important event in two lives.

At 11 o'clock the Rev. G. W. Lawrence, of this city, in a simple, yet impressive manner, performed the ceremony which united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Lotta A. Bemis, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervia Bemis, and Phillip B. Parker, Esq., manager of the Euclid stone company, of Cleveland, Ohio.

The couple stood under a genuine old fashioned oak yoke, which had done good service thirty years ago when Rock county was in its pioneer days. It was decorated with evergreens and in the background were many rare and choice house plants.

The beautiful bride was dressed in cream colored satin with embroidered front, lace trimmings and the bridal veil; ornaments natural flowers, too roses and carnation pinks. The groom wore black. It was the union of a lovely woman and a manly man.

After congratulations, a sumptuous repast was served, to the great comfort of the inner man. All members of the family are now married except K. J. Bemis who, though he once escaped from the back windows down over the kitchen to the ground, was finally caught and blanket tossed, to the great amusement of the spectators.

The presents were numerous, elegant, and valuable, that from the groom being a handsome gold watch and chain.

Among the friends present from abroad were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Waite and son; Mr. and Mrs. Lovina Fowler, of Oakbrook; J. W. Malone, president of the Euclid stone company, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bemis, of St. Louis, Mo.; K. J. Bemis, of Bloomington, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pool, and son, Marvin; Dr. and Mrs. Q. O. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Street; Mrs. B. Miller, Ellsworth J. Green, and Miss Julia Cannon, Emma Joselyn and Leon Neal, of Janesville, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bemis, Mrs. Kate Banover, Mrs. Arthur Bemis, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bemis, Miss Mary Bemis and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fellows, of Evansville.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker, started for Chicago on the 2:30 p. m. train, and as they left the house, old shoes and beams in great numbers were thrown after them for luck. They will return to Janesville on Saturday and will visit friends in the vicinity for about two weeks when they go to Washington, Philadelphia and other eastern cities before taking up their residence at Cleveland.

Thus has another of Rock county's fairest daughters been captured by a stranger. The only excuse for our young man this time is that they probably thought it was useless to contend with an Ohio man.

DOPEY-BROCK.

Father McGinnity was kept busy yesterday, and officiated at four weddings, all taking place at St. Patrick's church. The first being the happy union of Mr. Michael C. Duffy, of Chicago, and Miss Mary Brockley, of this city. The bride has many friends in Janesville, who will wish her and her husband a pleasant journey over the matrimonial sea.

LAST-TORM.

Mr. Thomas Hart and Miss Mary Tobin, of the town of Janesville, next presented themselves at the altar and were made happier by having their loving hearts united in the holy bonds of matrimony, and will be heartily congratulated by their many friends.

WHALEN-HOLMES.

Mr. John Whalen and Miss Kittie Holmes, both of this city, took the solemn vows uniting their hearts and fortunes until the end of life, and departed in a happier mind to receive the congratulations and well-wishes of their friends.

BRENNAN-BURNS.

Mr. John Brennan and Miss Burns, both of this city, also stepped into the holy edifice and before the sacred altar and the minister of their faith, pledged one to the other the solemn promises that made them husband and wife.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer registered 29 degrees above zero. Snowing with north wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 32 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with north wind.

For the corresponding hours last year the register was 4 and 17 degrees above zero. At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 4 degrees above zero. Clear with northwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 26 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with west wind.

For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 4 and 29 degrees above zero.

FOUND DEAD.

Hiram B. Myers found Dead this Morning at his Home on Palm Street.

Under circumstances which lead to a Coroner's Inquest.

At an early hour this morning the people residing in the vicinity of Palm and West Bluff streets, first ward, were startled at the report that Mr. H. B. Myers, better known, perhaps, as "Blackhawk Myers," owing to the fact that for many years he resided in the vicinity of Blackhawk grove, in the third ward, was found dead at his home on the corner of Bluff and Palm streets, first ward.

The cause of his sudden death will be the subject of an investigation by the coroner's jury, which was immediately summoned. Dr. J. B. Whiting was called to the house to examine the body, and at his suggestion the district attorney authorized Justice Priehard to summon a jury for the purpose of holding an inquest.

The summons was issued and Officer J. F. Drake subpoenaed the following persons as jurors: Messrs J. W. Nash, J. T. Wilcox, Thomas E. Cook, Charles Williams, E. Davies, and B. Spence, after being sworn the jury repaired to the home of the deceased, and after viewing the remains, adjourned to meet at Judge Priehard's office at half-past two o'clock.

Mrs. Myers, wife of the deceased, stated to persons calling at the house this morning, that her husband came home at about four o'clock last evening, at that time he was sober, but he afterwards went away and did not return until late in the night—just what time she did not know, as she awoke up in the night and found him in bed with her, Myers occupying the back side of the bed, as was his custom. She says he was up after that and was "sneaking" about the house. She again fell asleep, and thought nothing more of him.

At an early hour this morning she awoke and threw her feet out of bed to get up, and instead of putting her feet on the floor, she was horrified to find them resting on the body of her husband—dead and stiff in death's embrace. She dressed herself and then called in the neighbors. Myers was found lying on the floor in front of his bed, face downward, with nothing on his person except his two shirts. His tongue was protruding, and his teeth closed tight together, inflicting a slight wound. Those around the house after the report of Myers' death had been made known, noticed the strange scenes in the house, and think the official inquest will bring something to light.

It is said that his sudden death was the result of disease of the heart.

H. B. Myers had resided in this city for many years; was a carpenter by trade, and was known by many of our people. Of his habits and habits, we will not now speak. He is now among the silent dead, and with his body we will consign all that could be said against his character. He leaves no children.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Colia A. Neal, now a teacher in the Ford du Lac schools, is home for a few days.

—Frank L. Barrows, of Milwaukee, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Barrows, came home yesterday for his Thanksgiving dinner.

—Mr. Hyatt S. Haselton, of Milwaukee spent Thanksgiving day in this city visiting with his mother, South Jackson street.

—Mr. George Wilson, of Huron, Dakota, arrived home on Wednesday evening, and will spend a portion of the holidays in the Beaver City.

—Mr. F. J. Starns, agent of the land department of the Chicago and North-western railroad company, is in the city today, looking after the equators on the company's land.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Leland, of Rockford, and F. A. Leland and Miss Nellie F. Mennen, of Chicago, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Leland of the second ward.

—Miss Stella Palmer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Palmer, and Miss Bertha Jackson, daughter of Hon. A. A. Jackson, now attending the Rockford female seminary, came home for a Thanksgiving dinner.

—Miss Genevieve Rich, daughter of Conductor and Mrs. Eugene Rich, who is attending school at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Chicago, partook of Thanksgiving turkey at her home yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy, of Chicago, are in the city, called here to attend the Yankin-Belden wedding yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Kennedy will be remembered as Miss Ola Belden, formerly of this city, and sister of the bride.

—Prof. W. D. Parker, of the River Falls Normal school, spent Thanksgiving in Janesville among his old friends. Prof. Parker is a warm friend of Col John C. Spooner, and would like to see him elected U. S. senator.

—Mr. George W. Grove, of Haron, Dakota, arrived in the city on Wednesday evening, and attended the Hook and Ladder dance, where he met a large number of his intimate friends.

Mr. Grove will remain in the city some three or four weeks.

Counterfeit Silver Dollars.

The business men of the west are just now greatly annoyed, and often suffer loss on account of the enormous amount of counterfeit silver coin now in circulation. The counterfeit silver dollar is receiving particular attention of the press.

An exchange says: "The number of counterfeit silver dollars are said to increase to an alarming extent, and to such a degree that it is not amiss for a person to examine every one of the dollars of our daily life receives. The clumsily executed lead dollar that was found some months ago has now almost entirely disappeared, but a new, and much more dangerous counterfeit has been discovered, which has also not only taken its place, but has also an increased circulation."

The new counterfeit is a skillfully executed dollar and so perfect in its ring and imitation of the genuine, that it is almost impossible for any one excepting an expert to detect it. It runs from the year 1978 to 1884 and is made of white metal compactly compressed in a die and carefully plated with silver. The only way in which this coin is detected is by the fact that it is a little lighter than the

THE RABBIT SLAYERS.

They Make War on the Long-Eared Rodents—and Return from the Brush Piles With but very Little Game.

Yesterday morning at eight o'clock by previous arrangement, a party of ten rabbit slayers, armed and equipped, started for the brush pile north of the city on either bank of Rock river for the purpose of slaying rabbits, and whatever game should chance to face their double-barreled breach loaders. This party of ten was divided, five and five, each having a captain, the agreement being that the party showing the smallest number of points in the evening, rabbits being the standard, should pay for an oyster supper. These parties were—Captain Frank F. Pierson, assistants Messrs. H. L. Slavien, Ben Moe, George Irish, and a boy and gun to drive the game team; and Captain Henry Tall, assistants Chas. Andrews, Samuel Tall, Arthur Speare, Frank B. Strickler, two or three dogs and a boy without guns. The parties remained out until late, the last one reporting at six o'clock. George Irish avers that he traveled out in the country over seven miles. On counting up the points of each individual member, it was found that of the Pierson party, Captain Pierson brought in seven squirrels and thirteen rabbits; H. L. Slavien three rabbits and two squirrels; Ben Moe three squirrels and two rabbits; George Irish five rabbits and a partridge; the boy and gun with the team, failed to report—and it was claimed that he did nothing but mind the team, Captain Pierson claiming four hunters. This gave Captain Pierson's party, with four men, 38 points.

The other party reported as follows: Captain Henry Tall, four rabbits; Charles Andrews five rabbits and one partridge; Samuel Tall three squirrels, one rabbit and a squirrel owl; Arthur Speare, six rabbits, one squirrel and one wild duck; Frank B. Strickler, four squirrels and one partridge; no returns from the dogs or the boy with the team, five hunters with 40 points. The tally party was declared the losers, and in accordance with the previous agreement, the oyster supper was provided. The game was displayed at Pierson Bros. gun shop on North Main street last evening. Some of the hunters claimed that there were two or three hunters to every brush pile in the country, and they could not find many live rabbits, and but very few dead ones, which accounts for so small a score.

THANKSGIVING.

How the Day was Observed in the Churches.

THE UNION SERVICES.

The First M. E. church was comfortably well filled yesterday morning with an audience composed of members from the Congregational, Baptist, Presbyterian and both Methodist churches, and the services were impressive and profitable.

The choir of the First M. E. church had charge of the song service and some very appropriate anthems were rendered. Rev. Mr. Goldthorpe read the governor's proclamation and announced the opening hymn which was followed by prayer offered by the Rev. Dr. Hodge. The scripture lesson was read by the Rev. Mr. Brown and after singing another hymn the Rev. Mr. Wilcox of Court street church preached the Thanksgiving sermon taking for his text the following passage of scripture found in the book of Nehemiah:

"Then he said unto them: Go your way, eat the fat and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy unto our Lord. Neither ye nor they, for the day of the Lord is your strength."

The speaker gave a vivid account of the occasion and surroundings that called forth this old Thanksgiving proclamation of the Prophet Nehemiah; and drew a pleasing analogy between the children of Israel in the seventy years' experience just preceding the Thanksgiving announced in the text, and the seventy years of persecution that preceded the launching of the Mayflower, which resulted in establishing the first Thanksgiving on the new continent in the year 1621.

The little colony that found occasion for gratitude on the rugged shores of New England, under all the discouragements and hardships incident to their surroundings by their undaunted courage and persistent love of religious liberty, succeeded after a century and a half of struggle in presenting to the world a nation which to-day has no peer among the governments of the world. For more than one hundred years America has celebrated her national Thanksgiving. The speaker portrayed the old New England custom of observing the day in a manner that brought forcibly to mind many pleasant memories and caused the old people in the audience to travel back through the years to the old home with its glad Thanksgiving cheer and family reunions.

Looking back through the history of our country from its earliest inception and tracing its development year by year through all its varied experiences we have abundant reason this year to thank God for all the ways in which He has led us.

The sermon was full of good thoughts, happily expressed, and was thoroughly appreciated by the audience.

At the close of the services, a liberal collection was taken up for the benefit of the needy, the same to be distributed by the pastors of the various churches.

CHURCH SERVICES.

Thanksgiving services were held at Christ church at 10:30 o'clock, and were conducted by the rector, Rev. C. M. Fullen.

NORWEGIAN LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Service fitting the occasion were held at the Norwegian Lutheran church in the morning, Rev. T. K. Thorvaldsen preaching an able sermon.

TRINITY CHURCH.

At Trinity church Rev. Dr. J. F. Conover, the new rector, preached an able sermon on "The Duty of Thanksgiving." A synopsis of this able sermon would fail to do justice to the learned gentleman, and we will therefore give the entire sermon to the readers of the Gazette on to-morrow evening.

XMAS PRESENTS

China Department

The Fair.

BARGAIN PRICES

China Department

Glass, Water Tumblers each $ .02

Glass Goblets " .08

Colored Glass Salt Shakers " .12

Colored Glass Water Tumblers " .16

Colored Glass Finger Bowls " .12

Decorated china fruit plates " .15

Decorated China Cream Pitcher " .15

Decorated China Mustache Cup " .20

Decorated Molasses Pitcher " .48

Decorated Breakfast Plates per set " .4